MCGAVIN CUP FOOTBALL SERIES STARTS TODAY

With the net proceeds going to augment the sadly depleted injured players' fund of the Victoria and District Basketball League, play in the McGavin Cup series will get under way this week-end with three matches scheduled.

Played under a knockout system, this is the only competition during the entire season's play in which the net gate receipts are earmarked for injured players. Regular soccer patrons will be afforded the opportunity of showing some tangible appreciation of the weekly contribution made to the sports entertainment program by our footballers.

Three matches are billed this week-end, two in the city, with the third fixture in Nanaimo. The draw pits the leading clubs against those lower in the league standings and at the moment there is not the slightest inkling of an upset.

Here is the draw and the way the games will wind-up:

Toppers vs. Signal Hall—Manager Joe Watt's footballers were good enough to finish third in the Victoria and District Football League playing against stiffer opposition than they will meet today. However, we have it from good authority that the Signal Hill army footballers play a robust game and could upset the applecart. However, the record set up by the Toppers in league play warrants their selection as favorites. Toppers will win here by three goals.

* * *

Victoria Wests vs. Canadian Legion—Greenshirts, champions of the Victoria and District Football League for the past two seasons, should have no trouble here with the cellar-dwelling Canadian Legion entry. Wests may be a little stale from lack of play, but they will be quite capable of taking care of themselves in this one. Final score: Victoria Wests, 5; Canadian Legion, 1.

* * *

Nanaimo vs. Navy—Nanaimo footballers had a good workout last week when they racked up the season's biggest score against the Canadian Legion, and should find the blue-jackets to their liking today. Up-Islanders, one of the most feared teams in the league at the moment, should win this one by four markers.

BASKETBALL PREDICTIONS

Victoria Dominoes vs. W.A.C., Seattle—Manager Dave Nicol's casaba tossers start off the new year's international series tonight at the High School gymnasium with Washington Athletic Club providing the opposition. According to advance reports the Sound City hoopsters will trot out a well-balanced squad against the high-scoring Dominoes.

The more ardent cage fans are prepared to admit that it will take a pretty good quintette to lower the colors of the 1945-46 edition of the Victoria Dominoes, who have only lost one inter-city exhibition this season on their home floor. From where we sit Manager Dave Nicol's proteges will open their 1946 campaign with a victory this evening. Final score: Victoria Dominoes 47, Seattle W.A.C., 34.

* * *

Eagles vs. Sprinkling Tailors—Floundering around in the senior "B" men's cellar, Eagles and Sprinkling Tailors have a provate battle all of their own in this one. Lodgemen are capable of taking the points but must tend to their knitting. Birdmen will soar to victory here by approximately seven points.

Carpet Bowling

Play in the Capital City and District Carpet Bowling League will be resumed next week with the following games listed:

Monday—Cedar Hill vs. Friars.

Friday—Willows Park vs. Mount Tolmie; Britannia vs. Rangers; Sherwood vs. Beadles.

Sammy Snead Has One-Stroke Lead In Golf Tourney

Cards Sub-Par 68 in Opening Round of Los Angeles Open—Demaret, Ferrier Second

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4 (AP).—Paced by Sam Snead, himself a navy dischargee, four former servicemen led the field today at the end of the first round of the 72-hole Los Angeles open golf tournament, a $13,333 Victory Bond prize event.

Slammin' Sam, defending champion, who won the tournament on this same course a year ago, tossed a 34-34—68 at his rivals, but the three under par for the Riviera course was good enough only to give him a one-stroke lead over the next two contestants.

Trampling on the leader's heels were Jimmy Demaret, Houston, Tex., sharpshooter, and Jim Ferrier, Chicago, each carding 69. And right behind was Vic Ghezzi, Deal, N.J., with a bang-up 70.

Demaret only recently was discharged from the navy. Ferrier stepped out of an army sergeant's uniform not long ago, as did Ghezzi, after three years as a non-com.

The first day's picture also provided this additional color: Ghezzi won the Los Angeles open in 1935 and Demaret in 1939. Snead is trying to make two wins in a row.

Immediately behind the sub-par shooters and accustomed to the lead-all position was the tournament favorite and world's greatest money winner, Byron Nelson, of Toledo, Ohio. Nelson shot 35-36—71, exactly par for the 7,000-yard course. Nelson had an unruly putter to blame for not cracking standard figures, but he will be the man to beat until the final shot is made.

He tied with E. J. Harrison, Little Rock, Ark.; Ed Furgol, Detroit; Herman Barron, White Plains, N.Y., and Harry Bassler, Los Angeles.

Two other prime favorites, Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., and Harold McSpaden, Sanford, Me., found the first day's going rough, from a ball-hitting standpoint, and finished with 73's. They can do better, probably will.

Tailors Score First Victory In Cage Upset

Sprinkling Tailors scored their first win of the season at Brentwood Hall last night when they surprised the Brentwood Aces by turning in a 27-24 triumph in a men's Senior "B" cage fixture on the strength of a second-half rally. In other games, Alcos, undefeated Intermediate "A" leaders, had an easy time of it with the Roller Bowl, winning as they pleased, 42-19, and Unitys also came through with an initial triumph, downing Rookies, 42-21.

Three points down at the half, the Tailors tied the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and then went on to win in the wide-open final session. Pridham and Clague led the winners with eight points each, while Aces were best served by veteran Charlie Sluggett, who managed ten.

Ken King and Larry Booth set the scoring pace for the strong Alcos, looping through 13 and 14 points, respectively. Winners were slow to start, marking up only 13 points in the first two quarters and holding a short five-point margin, but ran through their outclassed opposition for 29 points in the final half.

With Buddy Longstaff making her reappearance in the line-up, Unitys were quick to take a prohibitive lead over the hapless Rookies, leading 29-11 at the half-time intermission. Rookies made a better showing in the low-scoring final half, but were no match for the winners.

Teams and scores follow:

Sprinkling Tailors—Clague 8, McKay 5, Pridham 8, Webster 6, Sprinkling, Perry, Barnes. Total, 27.

Aces—B. Sluggett 2, Yardley 2, W. Turner 66, J. Turner 4, Aspinall, C. Sluggett 10. Total, 24.

Roller Bowl—Craven, Hetherington, Clancy 6, Winters 7, Aitken 4, Raftery 2. Total, 19.

Alcos—King 13, Booth 14, Creed 9, Joyce 4, Clarkson 1, Shubrook 1. Total, 42.

Unitys—Ford 6, Loudon 7, Stevens 6, Burnett 10, Longstaff 8, Miller 5. Total, 42.

Rookies—Gunniss 6, Lindquist, Lamb 6, P. Spiers, D. Spiers, Walker 3, Page 2, Manten 4. Total, 21.

Football Fixtures At Heywood Avenue

With the heavy rainfall leaving the field at Royal Athletic Park in an unplayable condition, officials of the Victoria and District Football League announced last night that the scheduled McGavin Cup game between Signal Hill and Toppers today, and the contest between Canadian Legion and the Wests tomorrow, will be played at the Heywood Avenue grounds. Both games will commence at 2:30 p.m.

Scoring Threat

GEORGE GLAVIN

Tallest man on the powerful Washington Athletic Club cage squad, this former University of Washington hoop star will need special attention this evening when his club attempts to break the home-game winning streak of the Victoria Dominoes at the High School gymnasium. Glavin towers to the six-foot five-inch mark, and for the past two seasons was regular pivot man for the Bainbridge Navy quintette. Tip-off is set for 8:45 p.m., with a senior "B" league fixture between the Eagles and Sprinkling Tailors preceding the intercity contest at 7:30 p.m.

Injuries Prove Fatal To Canadian Hardboot

Georgie "The Iceman" Woolf, Top Rider in 1944, Dies Following Spill at Santa Anita Track

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 4 (CP).—The nightmare of all jockeys — a racing spill—brought death today to one of the greatest of them all—George (the Ice Man) Woolf, of Cardston, Alta.

The 36-year-old rider died early this morning, 12 hours after his mount had stumbled going into the clubhouse turn at Santa Anita Park and threw him over its head. Woolf never regained consciousness.

Woolf—one of the half dozen top stake riders in the United States—won almost every American turf classic except the Kentucky Derby during his 21 years of professional riding.

He was thrown yesterday from Please Me, 1 1-2-to-1 favorite in the fourth race, when the horse stumbled at the head of the six-horse pack. There was no jam and Please Me recovered and finished the course without a rider ahead of the winner, Louis B. Mayer's Moneybags.

Woolf died while doctors were considering an operation to relieve pressure on his brain. At the end his wife, Genevieve, and several of his jockey friend, were with him.

The stubby little "money-rider" was the darling of bettors from Coast to Coast because he always rode to win. In 1935 he was up on Azucar when the horse won the inaugural of the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap, richest stake race in the United States, and other classics in which his mounts placed first were the Belmont Futurity, the Santa Anita Derby, the Pimlico Special and the Hollywood Gold Cup. He won the last-named event three times.

At the time of his final accident, he was nearing the end of his career. A diabetic, he could not reduce and was forced to ride only in races in which he could scale about 115 pounds.

Woolf started as a jockey at small Southern Alberta and Montana tracks and had his first mount on an organized track at Calgary's Chinook Park oval in 1920 when he rode the late Fred Johnston's Catch Me.

Georgie's father credits much of "the Ice Man's" success to Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel T. Whitehill, who bought the young jockey's contract and took him with them over the racing circuits.

"The Ice Man" won his nickname early for his cool and steady riding in which he displayed great ability to take advantage of opportunities.

He switched from Canadian to American tracks in 1928 and rode his first winner on the major circuits at the old Tijauna, Mex., oval in 1928. During his long career he was said to have saved $250,000.

TOP MONEY-WINNING HARDBOOT IN 1946

In 1944 he was top money-winning jockey in the United States and in 1942 his mounts won $341,680.

Over the years Woolf was the best Canadian-born jockey ever to ride a thoroughbred. His fellow Albertan, Johnny Longden, of Tabor—who has ridden more winners than any other jockey in North America—was born in Britain.

Ten years ago Woolf planned to retire and attempted to join the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in Alberta. He was rejected because of his small stature and returned to the tracks.

Woolf, who rode Whirlaway, Lady Broadcast, San Luis Rey, Bymeabond, Azucar and other famous thoroughbreds, claimed that Seabiscuit was the greatest horse he ever rode. On Seabiscuit, a rank outsider, Woolf rode to victory in the 1938 Pimlico Special against War Admiral, the favorite.

Ironically, "the Ice Man" met his death in a $3,500 purse race—one of the few non-handicap events in which he rode in recent years.

One of the turf's most affluent jockeys and a "big-timer" since 1933, Woolf for several years had carefully picked his spots and stables.

He led stake winners with $341,680 in 1942 and $338,135 in 14 races in 1944. In 17 stakes in 1945 he won $209,000.

In his racing career since 1928, Woolf had 3,784 mounts—721 of them winners—for purses totalling $2,856,120. Approximately $2,000,000 of that, it is estimated, came in major stakes.

Woolf owned a restaurant and bar in Arcadia, near Santa Anita, where he made his home for the last several years.

Varsity Cagers Are Defeated in Conference Tilt

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 4 (AP).—University of British Columbia's debut into northwestern basketball conference play was marred by a 43-41 defeat by the Willamette Bearcats here tonight.

The highly-favored Canadians relinquished the lead to the Bearcats after four minutes of play, and were never on top again. Willamette held a 30-20 half-time advantage, and a few minutes before were on the long end of a 29-16 count, the widest margin of a roughly played game.

Sharing scoring honors for the winners were Fred Graham and Irv Miller, each with 12 counters. Ritchie Nichol, with eight tallies to his credit, paced the Thunderbirds.

The two clubs clash here again tomorrow night to conclude their two-game series.

Teams and scores follow:

Beau Jack Scores Fourth Round K.O. Over Morris Reif

Former Lightweight Champion Puts Brooklyn Fighter Away in Bruising Brawl at New York

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—Bouncing Beau Jack made a surprise switch from a wear-them-down puncher to a savage slugger tonight and flattened Morris Reif, an outgunned Brooklyn boxer, in four rounds in Madison Square Garden. Jack weighed 143 1-2; Reif, 146 1-2.

Winding up a bruising brawl that had a near sellout crowd howling from bell to bell, the former lightweight champion doubled his Brooklyn rival up with a smashing right to the body midway of the fourth round, then brought up another right to the chin and Reif was counted out at two minues, one second of the heat. The bout was scheduled for ten rounds.

Making his second start since coming out of the army, Bouncing Beau had a new script—a slugging, "Sunday punch" kind of action with every shot instead of his usual buzz-saw tactics.

Only in the third, when Reif switched what attack he could muster and began to tee off to the Beau had a new script—a slugging, any difficulty. Midway through that heat, Morris fired a left hook that practically sank out of sight in Jack's midsection, and for half a minute the Georgia negro slowed to a walk. Before the round was over, however, he was back in there with his blockbusters again, and it was obvious the party was just about over.

Immediately after the bout Jack signed to meet Johnny Greco, Montreal welterweight, in the same ring February 8.

Australia Standout in Cup Tennis

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP).—A survey of the postwar tennis world strongly indicates that Australia is due to rule the international roost for a number of years, or at least until some other country can produce a new crop of outstanding players.

The Aussies, with Jack Bromwich and Adrian Quist still going strong and several promising younger stars such as Dinny Pail coming along, appear almost a cinch to defend the Davis Cup successfully in the first postwar challenge round this year at Melbourne.

Bromwich and Quist were good enough to trim all comers at Merion in 1939, when they took the big mug back to the other side of the world, and it is extremely doubtful that the United States is as strongly fixed for talent now as it was at that time, when Bobby Riggs still was available as an amateur.

As for France and Britain, which are expected to meet for the European zone title and the right to play the winner of the American zone in the inter-zone final, word from the other side is that both countries will have to start virtually from scratch.

Illustrative of the low to which France's tennis fortunes sank during its trying years, old master Henri Cochet recently obtained reinstatement as an amateur and has been reported holding his own against the best of his fellows.

Cochet was at his best as far back as 1927, when he and the other of France's famous "Four Musketeers" won the Davis Cup from the United States. He turned professional before the war.

Holcombe Ward, president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, explained that Cochet's reinstatement was strictly a French affair, making him eligible to play only in minor tournaments in his own country. He would not be permitted, for instance, to play in the championships at Wimbledon or Forest Hills or in Davis Cup competition.

Top man on the American team presumably will be Frank Parker, national champion for the past two years but scarcely one of the great champions. In one of the two concluding singles matches of the 1939 challenge round, Bromwich beat him 6-0, 6-3, 6-1.

Chess Masters Play to Draw in Marathon Match

HASTINGS, England, Jan. 4 (Reuters).—A marathon chess game of 180 moves, lasting seven and a half hours, had an unusual ending at the Hastings Congress tonight. J. Mieses, 81-year-old master from Leipzig, claimed a draw with L. Prinz, of Holland, on the ground that no pieces had been taken during the last 50 moves. This was upheld and the match was declared drawn.

Dr. S. Tartakower, of Poland, playing a strong winning game against the Swiss champion, M. Christoffel, retained his lead in the international section.

Dr. Max Euwe, of Amsterdam, a former world champion, is two games in arrears and even if he wins both can at the present stage only equal Dr. Tartakower.

EXHIBITION SOCCER

Oak Bay and Saanich Indians will play a friendly fixture this afternoon at Windsor Park commencing at 2:30. Oak Bay team will be selected from the following players: Laing, Swainson, Newman, Witmer, Denoni, Rowe, Thompson, Knappett, Richards, Latham, Robinson, Holding and Burdge.

— A HORSE NAMED JOE —
That rocking horse that Santa left is ever on the go, an' for some funny reason Trudie named him Joe. When first she saw him under the tree, she couldn't believe it was her own Gee-Gee, and so didn't get on him right away, but shied to a wash tub and started to play. Now Joe has a funny look in his eye, tho' a pretty blue shade like the sky, and he arches his neck close and low, just like a big brother at a horse show. So it took Trudie quite some time, to saddle up and peddle her line. But now she's got "good hands" and "seat," and Joe is up to any feat, and is not content to merely rock, he wants to slide and then to balk. In the dark this morning I reversed the pace, I hurdled over him and went flat on my face.

FLAT ON YOUR FLOOR—A new shipment of beautiful Mirzapore (Br. India) rugs, one of these is a joy forever . . . the price is a sure thing.
